Happy New Year From MGC

Christmas/Holiday Party New Year's Day

For the first time in two years we were able to hold the MGC Christmas party and it was a nice day and a great time. The food was outstanding, a big THANK YOU to everyone who brought a dish/appetizer/dessert to share. I don't think anyone went away hungry.

The MGC Scholarship Raffle was also held that day and we had the best selection of prizes that we've ever had. THANK YOU to those that donated prizes for the raffle. The winners are posted on the MGC website. www.mplsgunclub.com

Summer League Capitan Meeting

It's not too early to be thinking about the summer leagues. The meeting will be Wednesday March 22nd. Start rounding your team up and invite people that you think would be interested. Nothing better than spending an afternoon/evening with friends at MGC.

MGC Club Champion -- Jake Boerboon

MGC Club Championship

The MGC Club High All Around Championship was held in conjunction with the Holiday Party. 25 Skeet, 25 Trap and 25 five Stand targets.

For the last EIGHT years, Doug Dingman was King of the Championship!!! This year the competition was as fierce as the summer leagues. When it was all done, ONE target separated first and second place. Jake Boerboon took the Championship by hitting 70 out of the 75 targets. CONGRATULATIONS JAKE!!!

Jackpot Trap and Jackpot 5 Stand is held Saturday and Sunday. Again, they're fun to shoot and there is cash prizes. C'mon out and give 'em a try.

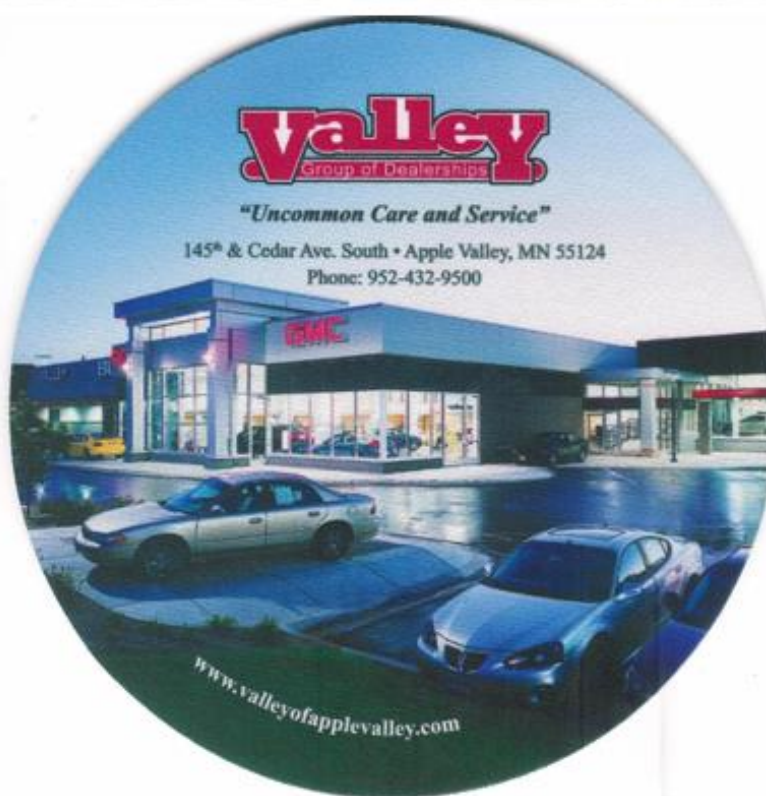

Painting the Skeet Houses

IF you know of anyone who would be interested in painting the skeet houses we are taking bids to get it done. They're overdue and we'd like to get them done ASAP in the spring. Have them contact Mark at the Club. 952-469-4386

Embrace the winter everyone.....me thinks it's here to stay. :>(
